

Brownian Motion

Watch the erratic movement of the orange puck as ball bearings strike it randomly from all sides. Robert Brown made the same observation of a feather floating on pond water and mistakenly thought this was evidence of a microscopic life.

Design and built by Joe Hastings in cooperation with Exhibiteers Inc.
Client: Arizona Science Center, Phoenix, Arizona

www.exhibiteers.com